Guidelines for National Children Awards

Introduction

The Government of India had been conferring the award to children for their exceptional achievement. The awards were given to children for their merit in innovation, scholastic, sports, arts, culture, social service, music or any other field which deserves recognition. The awards for child welfare were also conferred to Individuals and Institutions. These awards were given in the following categories:

1. National Child Award for Exceptional Achievements - since 1996
2. National Child Welfare Award(Individual) - since 1979
3. National Child Welfare Award(Institution) - since 1979
4. Rajiv Gandhi Manav Sewa Award - since 1994

2. During the selection process of awardees in 2017-18, it was felt that the scheme is unable to elicit adequate response from society. Hence, Hon'ble Minister, WCD advised to review the scheme to make it more topical & inclusive to encourage children for their merits as well as society centric achievements. A need was felt to frame comprehensive common guidelines for these awards while incorporating a category of bravery to encourage children for their merits and social orientation. Scheme should be open to public at large, so as to generate enthusiasm amongst all.

3. The Government of India now introduces these awards under the name of "National Children Awards" in two categories i.e
